

You're INVITED to a COMPLIMENTARY WEBINAR funded in part by a Grant from the Pennsylvania Developmental Disabilities Council

Accommodating Non-Apparent Disabilities in the Workplace

Expert Panelists: Susan Niskey Popp, Chief Operating Officer, Department of Radiation Oncology and Proton Therapy, University of Pennsylvania Health System, and W. Skip Simonds, Managing Principal, Simonds & Associates

Facilitated by: Janet D. Fiore of The Sierra Group Foundation

Susan Niskey Popp

W. Skip Simonds

PARTICIPANTS WILL LEARN:

- *How to balance the Practical side vs. the Businessneeds during the accommodation process
- *How to directly address and work through the human factors side of every request
- *How to create a culture that fosters open communication as the key mechanism for success, and
- *PRACTICAL examples of CREATIVE solutions that have worked!

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2016

1:00 PM - 2:00 PM

This business-to-business mentoring webinar is intended to gain valuable insights from the PA Employment Project mentor presenters.

Attendance is free of charge.

Register NOW, webinar space is limited!

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

267.765.1507 x258

Emily.Coder@thesierragroupfoundation.org

The Sierra Group, a nationally acclaimed workplace consultancy, is facilitating trainings designed to entice radical change in disability hiring practices. This training is one in a series of FREE events where employers will share and mentor other employers on how to deepen cultural awareness and recruitment of employees with Disabilities.

The PA Employment Project "Employer Focused Employment" tools and training programs are funded in part by a grant from the PA Developmental Disabilities Council.